Frusion is very happy to welcome this supreme Galician band to the agency.

Berrogüetto are well known across Europe for superb stage shows, awesome musicianship and real joy in their music making. The band have enjoyed international success with numerous albums and with their last album Hepta caused a sharp intake of breath over a stunning achievement.

Now in 2006 the band release 10, showcasing what has made them one of the most sought after live roots acts in Europe. In fact the band have won several prestigious awards in their 10 year career and regularly collaborate with great world music musicians. On Hepta they engaged the great Duduk player Jivan Gasparyan and master of the Cimbalon Kalman Balogh

From performances at Cambridge Folk festival and Sidmouth a few years ago the UK public first had an opportunity to enjoy their music, just take a glance at this description from a recent review to see what to expect if you book this great band of artists.

"In European folk music, there aren't many bands that know how to mix traditional and modern sounds with perfection, but among this small group there has to be a place for the Galician band Berrogüetto"
