Over the last 14 years Prego have played their vibrant take on European rootsmusic. Virtually all of their material written by band members, they've built an enviable reputation for fantastic live performance. With two worldwide critically acclaimed albums behind them, live performances tinged with vigour, passion and above all genuine friendship with audiences throughout the UK. They've played everything from 4 dates for Euro 96 to The Commonwealth games many many festivals, arts centres and numerous other events. A new album in production and a great line up, still imbued with sun kissed Latin American rhythms blended with the tastes and sounds of Europe and a very unique UK drive. Well worth checking out, always a party when Prego are on stage.

Here's just a few of Prego's always good reviews

"they couldn't play a naff gig if they tried..they've progressed and recently metamorphasised into a tight slick fusion unit that pulls in Latin , Reggae and Mediteranean influences to flesh out the Breton and Galician flavoured tunes"

Simon Jones Trad Music (England UK 2000)

"everything here from East European oompah to Gypsy/Breton and Galician tunes"

Terry Barter TAPLAS (Wales UK)

"the resulting music is a driving bouncy hybrid .. Avarela is a fine record that I'll bet only hints at what a great live set they put on "

Cliff Furnald Rootsworld/CMJ (New York USA)

"with their European Roots music, full titlt, joyful dance music ... with a strong Spanish / French influence. The whole band fizzes along, their is humour and freshness everywhere".

Trevor Buck Dirty Linen (Boston USA)

"they're just like Santana, and Smith he's the Carlos of the squeezebox ... and you can't say fairer than that chum.

Simon Jones Traditional Music Maker 2003
